DRAFT FINAL NOTE.

Subject:- Release of long-term convicts on probation.

The Standing Advisory Board, Central Jail, Bangalore at their meeting held on the 3rd July 1940 considered the cases of ten long-term convicts and recommended release of eight of them, viz.,

1) Seekala alias Venkata, No. 6777
2) Chinnaswamy alias Appiah Naidu, 99
3) Deva, No. 216.
4) Deva, No. 217.
5) Kondappa, No. 249.
6) Abbas Sab, No. 250.
7) Jagalur Basappa, No. 295.
8) Chikka Gummiah, No. 9694.

~~These cases have been examined and considered and it is found desirable~~ I am of opinion that convict Seekala alias Venkata, No. 6777, should not be released before the expiry of the term of his sentence, in view of the fact that he is a habitual criminal with a number of previous convictions for offences similar to those for which he is now undergoing imprisonment, and that the people of the village and the Superintendent of Police are not in favour of his release.

As regards the other seven convicts it is proposed to accept the recommendation of the Board for their release. They are all long-term convicts, sentenced to transportation for life for having committed murder but they have undergone 2/3rds of their sentence and their conduct in the prison is satisfactory. Further, the people of the ~~respective~~ villages to which they belong and the District Superintendents of Police concerned are in favour of their release and the District Magistrates are willing to appoir probation officers for their after-care.

The Dewan and the Second Member of Counci having agreed to the proposed release of these seven convicts I solicit the gracious sanctior of His Highness to the proposal.

7.	249	Kondappa
8.	250	Abbas Sab
9.	293	Jagalur Basappa &
10.	9694	Chickka Gummiah

The Committee resolved to recommend the following cases for such orders as the Government may deem fit to pass:

1.	6777	Seekala alias Venkata
2.	9936	Chinnaswamy alias Appiah Na
3.	216	Deva
4.	217	Deva

3. Serial No.1, 6777 Seekala Alias Venkata:- Convict No.6777 Seekala alias Venkata, a resident of Periyapatna, Mysore Dist accused in C.C.Nos.289, 310 and 335/33-34 on the file of the First Class Magistrate, Mandya and in C.C.No.280/33-34 on the file of the Special First Class Magistrate, Mysore was convic Under Section 394, 380 and 411 I.P.C. and was sentenced to 8 years R.I. on 30-4-1934.

The case of this convict came up before the Board on 17-6-1939, when it was resolved that it should be considered after 6 months. Once again, the Board at its meeting held on 21-12-1939 postponed it for 6 more months. Again the Board a its special meeting held on 21-2-40 postponed it for consider tion after 6 months. As a habitual, he has undergone more t ¾ of his sentence. He has got only an unexpired sentence of months and 19 days. He has improved a great deal. There is a single Jail offence to his discredit.... His case deserves gracious consideration, as the District Magistrate states tha he will appoint a Probation Officer, if released conditionall

Serial No.2, 9936 Chinnaswamy alias Appiah Naidu:- Convict N 9936 Chinnaswamy alias Appiah Naidu is a native of Robertsonp The District Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division convicted the accused Under Section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced him to suffer death in Kolar S.C.No.3/29-30. On appeal, the High Court of Mysore committed it to Transportation for Life.

On 23-3-40, his case was postponed for consideration at next meeting. It was again postponed by the Board at its Special meeting held on 7-5-40 for want of definite informatic about the mental condition of the prisoner from the Superin Superintendent, Mental Hospital, Bangalore. As the Village the District Superintendent of Police, the District Magistrate and the Superintendent, Mental Hospital, Bangalore are all in favour of his release, and as the conduct of the prisoner in the Jail was good, the Board on 29-6-40 consider that his case deserve the sympathetic consideration of Government

Serial No.3. 216 Deva:- Convict No.216 Deva is a native o Doddalahalli village, Kankanhalli Taluk. He was convicte under section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced to suffer Transportation for Life by the Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division in B.S.C.No.6/29-30 on 2-1-1930. The prisoner has undergone more than 2/3 of his sentence. During his confinement for more than 13 years and 4 months, he has committe very few Jail offences. But it is this convict who was organiser of a hunger-strike in Jail in last January at t instigation of certain political prisoners. After persuasion by the Jail staff, he gave up the strike. He was also deficient. Recently, he was suspected of having ta a part in the plot to assault the Jail officials. The suspician was not substantiated when a detailed enquiry w held. There is considerable improvement in his conduct now. As the convict has shown genuine signs of reformati the District Superintendent of Police, the Villagers and convict's neighbours are in favour of his release and the District Magistrate has found a Probation Officer and as convict fulfils the conditions of the Standing Advisory Bo rules, the Board have resolved to recommend his release.

His recommendation may kindly be accepted.

Serial No.4. 217 Deva:- Convict No. 217 Deva is a native o Doddalahalli village, Kankanhalli Taluk. On a charge of murder, he was convicted and sentenced to suffer Transporti tion for Life under section 302 I.P.C. on the file of the Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division on 2-1-1930. This pri soner has undergone 13 years and 5 months and 3 days impri sonment in Bangalore Central Jail including remission. H has committed very few Jail offences of a minor character. With the help of 216 Deva, he went on a hunger strike in last January at the instigation of cerain political prisoners. (Please vide remarks in the case of convict No.21 Deva's file). His conduct in the Jail is good of late. The villagers have no objection to his release. The District Magistrate has appointed a Probation Officer to to supervise his conduct after release. As he satisfies the conditions of the Standing Advisory Board rules, the Board at its meeting on 29-6-1940 recommend for his release

Serial No.5. 249 Kondappa:- Convict No. 249 Kondappa is a nati of Gujjanahally, Bagepally Taluk. He is a Vokkaligar by cast He was convicted on 11-1-1930, under section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced to suffer Transportation for Life in Kolar Sessions Case No.7/29-30 on the file of the Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division. He is a casual prisoner. Out of his 20 years' sen ence, he has served out a period of 13 years and 4 months. H conduct in the Jail throughout his period of imprisonment was very good. He has committed certain minor offences in the J Since 1934, he has not committed any Jail offence. The vill gers and the District Superintendent of Police are in favour of his release. The District Magistrate has appointed a Pro bation Officer. The Board consider this a very fit case for favourable consideration.

Serial No.6. 250 Abbas Sab:- Convict No. 250 Abbas Sab is a native of Pathapalya, Bagepally Taluk. He was sentenced to suffer Transportation for Life on a charge of murder under se tion 302 I.P.C. in Kolar Sessions Case No.7/29-30, on the fil of the Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division. He is a casual. He has served more than 2/3 of his sentence. The unexpired portion of his sentence is only 6 years and 6 months and 23 days. The vilagers and the District Superintendent of Police recommend his release under section 401 (2) Cr.P.C. The District Magistrate has appointed a Proyation Officer. Since 1938 he has not committed any Jail offence. Though he had once i stigated other prisoners not to take food and ~~has~~ created a slight disturbance, he has marvellously changed since 1938 an is now a good convict. He co-operates fully with the Jail Staff in enforcing descipline in Jail. In the above circumstances, his case deserves favourable consideration.

Serial No.7. 293 Basappa:- Convict No. 293 Basappa is a nativ of Jagalur, Chittaldrug District. He was convicted under Se 394 and 302 I.P.C and sentenced to suffer Transportation for for Life under section 302 I.P.C. and 5 years R.I. under section 394 I.P.C.(the sentences to run concurrently), in Chitaldrug Sessions Case No. 5/29-30 on the file of the Sessions -- Judge, Shimoga on 24-1-30. He is a casual. He has completed 2/3 of his sentence as per Standing Advisory Board Rules. He owns lands and houses and pays Rs. 60/- assessment to Government. He is married and has his wife. The villagers and the District Superintendent of Police are in favour of his release. The District Magistrate states that he will appoint a Probation Officer. He is of good behaviour since 1938. In the circumstances, the Board recommend his release.

Serial No.8. 9694 Chicka Gummiah:- Convict No. 9694 Chicka-Gummiah is a native of Kalavara, Chickballapur Taluk. He is a Vokkaligar. The Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division, Bangalore convicted him under section 109 read with 302 I.P.C. and sentenced him to suffer Transportation for Life on 20-7-1929 in Kolar Sesions Case No. 14/29-30. He is a Casual and too aged. He has undergone 2/3 (13 years, 6 months and 13 days) of his sentence. His conduct in the Jail is very good. He has not -- comitted any Jail offences since 1935. The villagers and the District Superintendent of Police are in favour of his release. The District Magistrate has already appointed a Probation -- Officer. The Baord recommend his case for release. This is ~~is~~ very deserving case.

Seperate files for each of the eight prisoners recommended for release by the Board together with a copy of the Proceedings are herewith submitted for kind reference and return with the orders of Government.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
